We're Sorry~! D:

Sweet Indulgent

We know it's been a while since we actually released something, but since the end of finals for most of our staff has had a lot of stuff happen. Things kept getting in the way of working, disappearing staff... Deaths and just summer drama and of course School finals, but hopefully we can get started back to work as things settle down a bit more as we plan out projects for the future.
wink wink

We'll like to thank you for keeping up with us and we hope you continue to read from us : D
